FOUND DEAD .- Houry Boswell, a well-known emple, who has for a number of years gained omplie, was has lift a dualist of years gained his fiving by begging on the rirects. was found dead, Saturday night last, about 10 o'cicek, on Queo street, bitween Heavy and B-yette, by one parties who were passed; that way. The fileds of the deceased were notified, and the bady we removed to his late bome on Columbus street near the canal basis. A jury was summored yesterday alteracon with Justice J bo H. Taompson foremon and Dr. R. C. Powell, emoner, and an inquest was held. After viewing the body and examining several wit-tissee, a verd of "that the deceased of mato his death from intemperation and exposure" wie remiered. B swell, a short time befere his titel as body was found, was seen in the store of John Robey in the corner of Fayette and Queen streets, where he took two dricks. He left the store very drunk, and dropped dead on his way home. George Boswell, brother of the deceased, was killed a few years ago by the falling in of a bulling in the northwestern section of the city, and the mother rec ived it intries from which she will never recover. This is the fourth death in the family in as many years.

THE 'ARLINGTON STATUE."-The 'three cold monte' business, with all its variations and changes, was again enacted by Washington rogn a yeaterd y. A young student named Back, from North Carolina, arrived in that city en his way to Philadelphia y sterday morning. and missing the train, wandered down to the Capital, where he was t ken in charge by three "nice young men," who suggested a trip to Atlington to see "the statue." The tar-heeler complete, and the party crossed over the river in a boar. At Arling out the cards were br ught firth, and a little scal game was indulged in, which cided in the North Carolinian bing windled out of $150. A Washington x-charge in speaking of the off-ir says: "the frequency of these swindles is an our age of this canadacty, whose character is fast being Cameron street, between Sc. Asaph and Wash who have made no effort to stop this netation. | profound sorrow by a large circle of friends. business wishic their borders. It is said that a few days axo a colored constable arrested one of this gang, who made good his escape by c and all pur-uit."

FOLICE R. PORT. - Capt. J. L Kelley, who was a realed Sturday (vestor on a warrant charging him with carrying concrated waspone, sword out by J. U. D cker, had a hearing be fore the Meyer Saturday night, and was discharged, as the evidence did not austain the

William Hall, colored, was arrested this morning on the charge of beating his wife. E z Hall, a much younger woman than he is a mao. The old man says "the tying onto Lzi was the beginning of all his wees, and if the Lad spirs him to get sid of this 'oman he will never easily have anything to do with the blasted critter." He was tried this atternoon by the Mayor and disobarged. Eize was fined five dollars for faiting to appear against Milton.

John Laws, a negro rough, by way of amuse ment, west to the house of Celia Jackson and Sarah Muchell, in Fashtown, Saturday evening, and indulged his brutal tastes by severely boat ing the two women. The Jackson weman was badly bruised about the head and body, and Sarah Machell ad ber poss nearly kicked from her face. Laws has not yet been arrested. A number of small boys for creating a noise on the corner near the tunnel, were before the blayer this afternoon. They were dismissed with a reprimend.

AN ALLIGED BIGAMIST ARRESTED -A MAD g ving his came as J. W. L. Thompson, from Predericksturg, was arrested in this city Satur day night by Officer i hos. Hayes, and identified by a young man named J. O. Honey, formerly of Francisch burg, but now residing here, as a fagitive from justice. Mr. Honey states that the usen was arrested in Frederickeburg for teleminuel, marrileg a Mis. Annie Huckleber, about feer months sao, and while being taken to the Uscover juil escaped from his guards. and has been at large ever since. It is further stand that Thomason has been convicted of burglary in Hanover. He was taken before Jastice Thompson this morning, who committed him to wait the action of the Hacover authori

STOLEN WATCH RECOVERED .- A colored man, giving his name as Thomas Harris, was arrested in Washington last week while atin ping to sell a valuable gold watch at one of the jack stops. He represented that he was From King George county, Va., and that the state belonged to him. As no one appeared seasons him he was disphered, but the watch was retained. Yesterday Capt. Merril, of King George, pur in an appearance and claimed the property. The thief is still at large.

A FANATIC'S STRANGE CONDUCT -A man by the name of Peverille, a member of the From Methodist congregation, created a good deal of excitement yesterday murcing just as the congregations of : h : cifferent churches on Washton street were leaving their respective places of wership by mounting a serriage step in front of the M. E. Church and denouncing, in a loud voice, the clerry of the city and their congrega tions. Mr. H z kiah Patton, a member of the chuch of thirty years standing, attempted to persuade the man to desist, but he was waved away with the remark "get behind me Satan," whereupon Rev. Mr. Pearce, pre or of the courch, interpused an objection, when he was told that he, Mr. Pearce, was daily presching souls into helt. Peverille finally consented to leave the place, but meeting the congregation of the Baptist Church be could not resist giving them a piece of his mind. The young ladies of that denomination were informed that "those frizz a and bongs were leading their souls down

YESTERDAY.-Yesterday was a cold. gloomy day, and the churches were not so largely attended as they usually are on a bright suppy Sabbath, All the rulpits were filed by the resident olergy except that of the First Presby terian Church where Rev. Mr. Murdech preached morning and night. Rev. Dr. Nor ton, of St. Paul's Church, and R.v. Mr. Pearch of the M. E Church, by request of the Y. M. C. A. presched interesting sermons to young men, the first in the morning and the latter at night. In the afternoon the Young Men's Christian Association, in accordance with instructions from the International Committee held a special service of song and prayer for yourg men and Young Men's Christian Asso. ciations, in the Baptist Church. An interesting meeting was also held in the afternoon in the rooms of the Alexandria R form Club, at which addresses were delivered by Rev. Merste. Murdoch and Pes:09.

EPLENDID ENTERTAINMENTS .- The entertainments to be given at Armory Hall on Tues day and Wednesday evenings next by the friends of the O'd Dominion Beat Conb, for the benefit of that club, bid feir to be the most one i wable tver given in this city. Both pieces, "Everybody's Friend" and "Al That Glitters is Not Gold," were reheated Saturday night in the presence of a number of ladies and gentlemen, and were pronounced by these competent to judge "well done." A large number of tickets have been sold, and success, pecuniarily and otherwise, is assured.

RESIGNED.—Mr. Justus Schneider, who, for several years part, has been the efficient superintendent of the Alexandria Marine Railway and Ship Building Company, at a meeting of the directors of that company, last week, tendered his resignation, which, at his request, was accepted. Mr. Fred. Rogers has been appointed clerk to the company. It is understood that Mr. Robert Portner expects to leave Alexandria for a short time, and that Mr. Sobnei-der will take charge of that gentleman's extensive brewing establishment in this city.

DEATH ON THE CANAL .- Mr. Patrick Hart, a young man of this cry, left here about a week ago for Cuaberland, in search of employment. He was taken suddenly ill at the cicht mile level on the canal, and started to return home on a canal boat. On Saturday he grew worse and died the same night before he reached this city. The bear acrived here yesterday, and the remains were taken to his late home on north Washington street, from whonce the funeral
